Consider the Ukrainian Museum of Canada when making your will.
Join the SPADSHCHYNA Honour Roll!

The Spadshchyna Honour Roll is a program of the Ukrainian Museum of Canada which recognizes and thanks individuals who have included the Museum as a beneficiary or who have left a donation through some other form of planned giving.

With permission, the individual's name will be inscribed on the Spadshchyna Honour Roll, which will be displayed in a prominent location in the Museum. Each Honour Roll member is given a Tree of Life pin at a special recognition ceremony that will be held each fall at the Museum.

Benefits of leaving a lasting legacy include:

- Having the satisfaction of knowing that your final gift to the Museum is arranged
- Knowing you are a leader and an example to Museum supporters
- Wearing a special pin exclusive to Spadshchyna Honour Roll members
- Receiving perpetual recognition on the Tree of Life display.

The easiest way to arrange a bequest is to take a plain piece of paper and write the following statement in pen and in your own handwriting:

"I give and bequeath the sum of (Indicate the amount of your bequest/gift) dollars ($ __) to the Ukrainian Museum of Canada of the Ukrainian Women's Association of Canada in Saskatoon, SK."

Sign your signature and write the date and year under your signature. Staple this statement to the main copy of your Will. There is no minimum amount to bequeath; and, you do not have to reveal that amount. You should consult your lawyer to make sure that your bequest will suit your needs and will meet your expectations.

If you are leaving a bequest to the Ukrainian Museum of Canada please complete and return the lower section of this page to the Museum.

Sincere 'thank you' for considering leaving a legacy to the Ukrainian Museum of Canada! If you have any questions, please contact the Museum Director, Janet Prebushewsky Danyliuk, 306-244-3800.

- I (we) have made a bequest to the Ukrainian Museum of Canada in my Will and wish to be recognized on the Spadshchyna Honour Roll.
- I (we) wish to remain as an "Anonymous" donor on the Spadshchyna Honour Roll.
